KRYSTALORE CREWS

Social Media Influencer & Trainer

Krystalore Crews is a 22-year retired U.S. Air Force Senior Master Sergeant, former NFL Cheerleader, 28-time marathoner and 50-mile ultra finisher, cancer survivor, Amazon best-selling author, and Georgetown-trained leadership consultant. She turns that story into audience — showing up on camera with the same discipline she brought to the flight line and the start line. As lead of Doublewide Media, she builds, grows and monetizes social audiences at scale, and trains founders, executives and creators to do the same.
