

Are you willing to have uncomfortable conversations with the goal of listening to learn a different perspective — without judgment, argument, or debate? Every episode we share trending topics and listening strategies that reduce stress and build relationships.

Krystalore Crews is a certified somatic and Compassionate Inquiry coach who specializes in the conversations most people avoid — divorce, grief, loss, and the quiet identity crises that come with them. A 22-year Air Force veteran, cancer survivor, and best-selling author, she has lived the uncomfortable middle and built a way through it. Using Compassionate Inquiry, holistic healing, her NEXT framework, the Freedom Formula, and shYft Master, she helps women move from survival to wholeness without bypassing the hard parts. Her signature path — the Rise & Thrive Bundle — turns the messiest season of a woman's life into the doorway to her next chapter: 90 days of nervous-system-first transformation, culminating in the Costa Rica Celebration Retreat.

PROVOCATIVE TALKING POINTS — LEADING TO THE RISE & THRIVE BUNDLE

1. Divorce, grief, loss — you say the body keeps the score. What's actually happening in a woman's nervous system in these seasons, and why does just talking about it rarely fix it?
2. Walk us through your NEXT framework and Freedom Formula — what's the very first uncomfortable conversation a woman has to have with herself?
3. You built the Rise & Thrive Bundle for exactly this moment. If a listener is in the messy middle right now, what do 90 days — ending in Costa Rica — actually do for her, and how does she start today?
